REPUBLICAN ELAINE HAYS ENDORSED BY MAJOR CONSERVATIVE ORGANIZATION

Maggie's List Back Hays for Texas' 13th Congressional District

AMARILLO, TX— Elaine Hays, an Amarillo City Councilwoman, small business owner, and congressional candidate for Texas District 13, announced the endorsement of Maggie's List, a national organization established to raise awareness and identify candidates who are fiscally conservative, believe in less government, more personal responsibility, and strong national security. The Maggie's List board of directors includes Pam Bondi, attorney for President Donald Trump during the impeachment trial and former Florida Attorney General.

“I am absolutely humbled and invigorated by the endorsement from such a well-respected and influential organization,” said Hays. “Maggie’s List’s principles are rooted in fiscal conservatism and less government, which undoubtedly align with what I would bring to the table in representing the conservative values of our district.”

“President Trump has stated that dealing with our national debt and out of control spending is going to be a priority in the fifth year of his presidency. Working alongside the president, using my fiduciary experience and knowledge as a Certified Financial Planner, will be crucial as we tackle the need to balance our budget and pay off past debt”, said Hays. “An endorsement from Maggie’s List reinforces a national movement to bring back conservative values to Washington.”

Maggie's List is a federal Political Action Committee created to raise awareness and funds to increase the number of conservative women elected to federal public office. Since 2010, this group of dedicated women have had an outstanding record for endorsing successful candidates for United States Senate and U.S. House of Representatives. For more information about their endorsement process please visit www.maggieslist.org.

Hays has vowed to support President Trump as he battles the far-left socialists in the Democratic party. Hays has stood firm on protecting the unborn and has spent years as a volunteer and counselor at pro-life organizations. Her expertise in finance and economics makes her the ideal candidate to fight out-of-control spending.

Hays grew up in the 13th District in Bridgeport, Texas and has lived in Amarillo since 1985. For the past twenty-five years, Hays and her husband Tracy have owned a small financial planning business. Hays played basketball at Texas Christian University where she earned her B.B.A. in Marketing. She also earned a Master's degree in Finance and Economics from West Texas A&M University. Hays is currently serving her second term on the Amarillo City Council.
